

Lineman Electrocuted, Thrown 25 Feet To Ground, As 2300 Volts Pass Through His Body

Unique 'Arcadians' Band, A Hit At AYA Dances, Has On Its Rolls 'Famous Names Of The Future'

One of three linemen installing a new electric power line on Silvia St. opposite Avola St., in Arlington Heights, was electrocuted at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon when 2,300 volts passed through his body.

The victim, who was instantly killed and hurled 25 feet to the ground, was identified as Walter McDonough of West Medway.

He was pronounced dead by Dr. Dow, medical examiner, who ordered the body removed to the Elliott Smith funeral parlors.

Police, after an investigation, said that McDonough was electrocuted when, at the top of a pole, he put his hand on a short piece of wire that boys had thrown over one of the power lines.

This short strip of wire, they said, was charged with 2,300 volts from the power line. It dangled against one of the V shaped iron supports at the top of the pole, and this too was charged with a lethal dose of electricity.

As McDonough touched either the wire or the iron support, he was instantly electrocuted, his feet against the pole itself completing the circuit.

By Kathleen Kirschbaum
Four years ago, a man named Joe Sullivan organized a group of musicians into a small band known as the Arcadians. Only one of the original members remains with today's group. He's Billy Hamilton the present leader—a marvelous organizer and grand trumpet player.

Billy graduated from Arlington High School in '47 and is now studying at the Academy of Music. For the future, he sees the dream of many a musician—becoming a name band leader, making his own arrangements and, Billy adds, "hiring girl vocalists."

The members of this college age band have some interesting occupations and hobbies besides this musical sideline.

Pianist Dick Rancatore, for instance, is studying economics at Boston College. He has plans for a night club business some day. A number of the boys attend the

Hundreds Hunt 'Miss Arlington Press' In Shopping Area; Award Of $50 Goes To Mrs. Grace Mann

Presenting $50 Award

AN OBJECT OF SEARCH by hundreds in Arlington Center Saturday, "Miss Arlington Press", at right, is shown presenting the $50 cash award to Mrs. Grace W. Mann of 105 Mystic St., the lucky shopper who found her sauntering through the business center. "Miss Arlington Press," incidentally, was Miss Joan T. Bushell of Malden.

Mrs. Grace W. Mann, 55-year-old widow and lifelong resident of Arlington, won the $50 offered by the Arlington Press Saturday for finding "Miss Arlington Press" among the crowd of shoppers in Arlington Center.

Mrs. Mann, questioning about as did many others for the elusive and unknown young lady, was asked about a dozen women: "Are YOU Miss Arlington Press?", when she chanced to hit on the right person.

Less than five minutes before, another woman who had stationed herself in front of Koford's and was questioning all young women who passed came very close to making the discovery; much closer than she realized.

"Miss Arlington Press" walked by, when this woman started to say to her, "Are you. . ." but then she stopped and added: "Oh, I asked you before." Had she completed her question she would have won the cash award. Another close call for "Miss Arlington Press" was in Koford's restaurant itself, where she dropped in about 10:45 for a cup of coffee. Several waitresses were gathered around the cashier's desk, talking about "Miss Arlington Press," and wondering who she might be. One of the waitresses said she thought she'd knock off work for awhile and go out and try her luck at finding her.

All Patriotic Groups To Muster Out For Parade Monday At 10

All Arlington veterans' and patriotic organizations will turn out Monday for the annual Memorial Day parade, which will get underway promptly at 10 o'clock. The parade will form off Broadway, on Alton St., at 9:45 headed by Jake W. Lindsey, Congressional Medal of Honor winner, as chief marshal, and Commander Charles J. Sheehan of Arlington Post 1775, Veterans of Foreign Wars, as chief of staff.

A stop will be made at the soldiers' monument at Broadway and Mass. Ave., where wreaths will be placed and exercises conducted. The parade will then reform and proceed to Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, where exercises will be conducted at the GAR lot by Sons of Union Veterans and United Spanish War Veterans, followed by exercises at the World War lot by the Legion and VFW.

Leaving the cemetery, the paraders will pass in review before the selectmen, chief marshal and aides at Medford and Warren Sts.

Vets In Need Of Homes Asked To Register, So Town Can Decide On Taking State Aid To Build Houses

'Nice Man' Gives Boy $1 After Running Him Down With Car

When Dennis K. George, aged 5, returned home at 59 Broadway after a tricycling expedition late Saturday afternoon, he proudly exhibited a dollar bill some "nice man" had given him.

His folks took a look at his tricycle, which was damaged, and at Dennis himself—who had a scratched elbow—and decided he'd earned the dollar the hard way.

Questioning brought out that an automobile had run the boy down on Gardner St., near Hilton St.

The driver of the car got out, sized up the damage—and then gave the boy a dollar and drove off. The autoist, perhaps feeling he'd acquitted himself handsomely, failed to report the incident to the police.

Do Arlington war veterans want low-cost housing? Do they want the town to avail itself of state funds now available to construct housing units?

The veterans' housing committee and the selectmen decided this week to put the matter directly up to the veterans themselves—and if they DO want action, to call a special town meeting.

All married veterans, of either World War, whose families now are inadequately housed, are invited to register their names Thursday of next week at any one of three places: the town hall, the Locke School and the Crosby School.

Chairman G. Bertram Washburn of the veterans' housing committee—more formally known as the Arlington Committee on Housing for Veterans of World War 2—told the Press, following a conference with the selectmen Monday evening, that both his committee and the selectmen were prepared to go ahead "if enough veterans are inadequately housed."

Final decision as to whether Arlington would avail itself of state funds would depend, however, upon a special town meeting—which the selectmen have agreed to call if such a step proves warranted on the basis of next week's registration.

Should the town meeting vote sanction, the selectmen would then apply for an allocation of state funds, which are available up to three per cent of the town's valuations—or a total of some $1,800,000.

This state money, under recent legislation, is being made available to various localities on a 25-year amortization basis.

In the event that state aid is accepted, plans would then be made for construction of two-family, four-family or larger housing units—In some cities "garden apartments" are being planned.

Mr. Washburn pointed out that,

Berman At Same Spot Forty Years

SHOWN IN CHARACTERISTIC POSE

Behind the counter is Mike Berman, who with his brother Ed—owners of Berman's Liquor Store—have been in business at 24 Lexington Ave., just across the line in Lexington, for 40 years. Originally they had a meat market; they added a liquor department, and gradually the growing liquor stock all but crowded out the meats. Strategically located as an oasis on a main highway, with the nearest other liquor dispensary six miles away, they enjoy a big volume of year 'round business.

These are just a few facts introducing some of this happy band's members, who do their bit toward offering near-professional accompaniment at weddings, proms, special social events, and rallies. The youth of Arlington is perhaps best-acquainted with the Arcadians' music, for it is truly privileged in having Billy Hamilton's orchestra play at the weekly "rec" dances.

These Arlington youth dances are known for miles around, both for their fine direction and the added feature of the Arcadians

Sea Rescues, Swimming Through Fire, To Be Demonstrated At Spy Pond Tuesday Night, At Dedication Of First Local Sea Scout Base

Thrilling demonstrations of life saving, including swimming—through fire and breeches' buoy rescue across the waters of Spy Pond, will highlight the dedication next Tuesday evening of the new Sea Scout base at Spy Pond.

Members of the Coast Guard will demonstrate the breeches' buoy rescue, while Fred Feyling will give a demonstration of swimming through flames.

The program for dedication of the Sea Scout Base, at the Boys' Club, is many-sided. At 6 o'clock there will be a Boy Scout district meeting, and there will be open house from 6 to 6:30. A buffet supper will be served from 6:30 to 7:30.

Demonstrations of water rescues will start about 7, and from 7:30 to 8 he Sea Scout base will be formally dedicated by Alexander W. Moffet, chairman of the Senior Scout Committee of New England and a noted yachtsman who has written several books on the sea.

The Arlington Kiwanis Club, which sponsors Sea Scout Ship 37, will hold its annual ladies' night in connection with the dedication. An added event will be the presentation of Eagle awards to Theodore William Berry Jr., of Troop 8.

Woman Walks Thru Glass Door In Store, Thinking It Was Open

Those modern all-glass doors, if it was demonstrated here on Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Schofield, a middle-aged housewife who lives at Willow Ave. in Somerville, was coming out of the Stop and Shop store in Arlington Center—where glass doors recently were installed—and she went through the glass.

It seems Mrs. Schofield was carrying a boxful of groceries in front of her. According to police report, she thought the door was open—and the boxed groceries hit the glass with such force that the entire glass panel crashed down.

A considerable crowd was attracted by the noise of the crash, which occurred at 5 p.m., and Mrs. Schofield had to be taken to a physician's to be treated for a badly cut right leg.

Up To Vets, Now

The town-appointed veterans' housing committee, which actually has no power other than to make recommendations, has sometimes been an object of criticism because Arlington thus far has built no housing units for its war veterans.

At the moment, the committee—with the cooperation of the selectmen—has decided upon a course of action which certainly cannot be criticized.

Faced with the question of whether or not to accept proffered state aid up to $1,800,000, which is now available for the construction of low-cost housing units here, the committee has decided to put the matter up to the veterans themselves.

How many veterans and their families are now inadequately housed? The question will be decided Thursday of next week, when all such vets are asked to register. If a sufficient number make known their needs, a special town meeting will be called and a real, comprehensive program to provide homes may shortly be under way.

Certainly, the housing committee is doing all it can—the rest is up to the veterans themselves, and then up to a special town meeting. Incidentally, the housing units that would be built with state aid would not be the temporary, barrack-like homes that were proposed some two years ago, but permanent and substantial residential units.

Just For The Record

A kind deed is sometimes spoiled by speaking about it, and ordinarily we wouldn't say what we're about to say.

Last week, we published on our front page a photo of Russell C. Canning, disabled veteran who courageously has opened a radio repair shop in his home in Arlington Heights.

Now, it so happened that on the very same page there appeared an ADVERTISEMENT signed by Mr. Canning, urging folks to send him their radios for repairs.

And someone, seeing the advertisement and then the news writeup, was heard to remark: "Oh, the Press gave him a free writeup because he's spending money to advertise."

So we feel we should set things right. An advertisement for Mr. Canning's home repair shop HAS been carried in the last several issues of the Press—but Mr. Canning hasn't been charged for it. He was willing to pay, but when the Publisher of the Press learned of his circumstances he GAVE him the ad free of charge, as his contribution to a courageous disabled veteran's effort to support his family.

The incident isn't important, but let's keep the record straight.

The Senior prom for the class of '48 was held at the Arlington Town Hall Friday evening, May 21. Shortly after ten o'clock as a climax to the grand march, beautiful, red-haired Caryl Cadario was crowned queen for the second consecutive year. In the reception line were Mr. and Mrs. Gammons, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks (parents of class president, James Brooks), Mrs. Moffatt, and Miss Rounds. Decorations of the evening consisted of crepe paper streamers and balloons overhead and white silhouettes dancing couples on the walls. During the evening, the fine music of the Stardusters was stopped for announcements by James Brooks, among them the engagement of Geneva Long '48 to George Todd. After an enjoyable evening at the Meadows, Mansion Inn, and Craines.

Emblem Club Entertains At Vet Hospital

Inaugurating something new in its service work, a most successful ward party was held at Cushing General Hospital last Thursday evening by Arlington Emblem Club No. 46 under chairmanship of Mrs. Edwin L. Brown, newly-appointed service chairman for 1948.

In her endeavor, Mrs. Brown was ably assisted by a committee of club members including Mrs. Joseph Barry, president; Mrs. John Gallucci, Mrs. Joseph Errico, Mrs. John Bresnahan, Miss Kay Bresnahan, Mrs. James Doyle, Miss Helen Cobb, Miss Alice Barry, Miss Eleanor Doyle, Mrs. Patrick Campbasso, Mrs. Ernest Parsons, Mrs. Clement Beaudet, and Mrs. Raymond Anderson.

A very interesting program was presented which was greatly enjoyed by the veterans. Assisting in this entertainment was Arlington's own inimitable Joe Barry, who rendered some of his excellent songs, and John Spadaro, Arlington's own "Houdini", who kept the boys spell-bound with his tricks of magic. Bill Furdon depicted Irish songs as only he can and Bill Finn rendered a few selections. The Dolly sisters gave several of their favorite numbers.

Arrangements for this party were made through Mrs. Dennis Donahue of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Refreshments were served and gifts of cigarettes, books and other confections were distributed. The committee is grateful to Arlington people who assisted in the collection of books for the veterans.

Crowds Cheer Opening Of AYA Senior League; 2 Games End In Ties

With record-size crowds in attendance, the Arlington Youth Association's senior baseball league opened its season Monday evening with four keenly-fought games—two of which ended in tie scores.

At Spy Pond, where Selectman Cahalin threw out the first ball, Yankees defeated the Braves 2 to 1, with Glenn Peterson of the Yanks pitching a no-hit game.

The Cardinals and Browns tied 4 to 4 at Purcell Field, where Assemblyman Purcell threw out the ball, and the Dodgers and Red Sox found themselves at a 1-1 impasse at the Summer St. Field, where Selectman Peterson did the honors.

The fourth game, at Thorndike Field, ended in a 7 to 4 victory for the Pirates over the Tigers. John C. Keefe, president of the Auxiliary Polic Association, threw out the ball at this game.

The senior league teams will play four games every Monday from now until the end of the season.

The junior league, meanwhile, was set to open its season with four tilts tonight, Thursday.

Truck Driver Phones Alarm Of Barn Fire

A truck driver passing by 129 Broadway at 10:25 p.m. Sunday saw unmistakable signs of a blaze, and phoned police that the house at that address was afire.

Firemen, quickly on the scene, found that it was not the house but a barn behind it that was afire. It was a brisk blaze, however, and did considerable damage before it was extinguished.

The barn is owned by M. E. Moore of 361 Mass. Ave.; the house is tenanted by Mrs. Elinor Quinn.

Circle Ends Its Season

The season's final meeting of the Women's Circle of Trinity Baptist Church was held Tuesday, with the new officers in charge headed by Mrs. Natalie Wallace as president.

Other officers for the ensuing season are: Mrs. Harry Earle, first vice president; Mrs. Robert Boyd, second vice president; Mrs. Jean Waddell, financial secretary; Mrs. Eva Spencer, treasurer; Mrs. Edna Campbell, secretary; Miss Margye Browne, missionary chairman; Mrs. Edith Rogers, chairman of White Cross; Mrs. Miriam Williamson, program chairman; Mrs. Isabelle Wells, social chairman; Mrs. Catherine Higgins, publicity.

According to Asst. U. S. Atty. Edward D. Hassan, the total shortage—revealed by a routine bank audit—comes to between $30,000 and $33,000 and represents amounts allegedly taken in the past year.

Hassan said Fallis Jr. had been employed as a teller at the Somerville Trust Company, of which his father was president, since 1929. The bank was merged with the Middlesex County National last Oct. 31, and Fallis Jr., quit after the shortage was discovered last February, Hassan said.

The warrant charges that $13,082, deposited by 56 different customers of the bank, was taken from the Somerville Trust Company before the merger.

There is no loss to the bank nor its customers as the bonding company has reimbursed the bank.

Pres. Frederick E. Jennings of the Middlesex County National Bank said yesterday.

Attorney Charles W. Bartlett defense counsel, said that "we will fight the case on its merits."

"The books and records of the town were found to have been efficiently kept, and cooperation was received from all town officials during the progress of the audit, for which, on behalf of my assistants and myself, I wish to express appreciation."

200 AHS Athletes To Be Honored Tonight At Ostergren Dinner

Members of Arlington High School's athletic teams will be honored by the Touchdown Club at the third annual Frederick V. Ostergren Memorial Banquet this evening, at town hall.

A feature of the banquet will be the award of watches to the outstanding senior boy and girl athlete, based not only on athletic ability but also on personal characteristics.

About 200 boys and girls will be guests of the club at the banquet, held annually in memory of the late Mr. Ostergren, who did so much for athletic teams of Arlington and youth in general.

Jackets will be presented to members of the high school hockey team, which won the GBI championship, and to four members of the track team who won individual state honors.

"Buff" Donelli, head football coach at Boston University, and Joe Tansey, Wentworth Institute mentor, will be the feature speakers. The banquet committee, headed by "Huck", has also arranged a fine program of entertainment.

Perlmutter Again To Head Jewish Center

Harry Perlmutter was reelected president of the Arlington Jewish Community Center at the group's May meeting last week.

Other officers for the year will be: Asher Spector, vice president; Eli Reingold, treasurer; Mrs. Morton Swartz, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Asher Spector, recording secretary.

An installation dinner and dance will be held Tuesday, June 15, at the Lantern on Spy Pond. A dramatic group, now being formed, held its first meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. Dora Reingold.

The Men's Discussion group will meet next Tuesday with Max Rosenthal; a theatre party by the women's cultural group is set for June 14, while the Sunday School and community picnic is being arranged for June 13 at the Sheepsfold in Stoneham.

The young woman was leaving the Five Cents Savings Bank and had started crossing Pleasant St. when the truck owned and operated by Antonio Caruso of 159 Plymton St., Waltham, struck her.

Woman Is Run Down By Truck

Mrs. Harold Wirth of 8 Huntington Rd., was run down by a heavy dump truck on Pleasant St. at Mass. Ave., at 11:30 yesterday morning, suffering chest injuries and body lacerations.

The young woman was leaving the Five Cents Savings Bank and had started crossing Pleasant St. when the truck owned and operated by Antonio Caruso of 159 Plymton St., Waltham, struck her.

Thrown to the ground near the right front side of the vehicle, Mrs. Wirth complained of chest pains and suffered also from shock. She was taken to Symmes Hospital by a passing motorist, Richard Zarse, 17, of 8 Felsdale Close, Winchester, with the assistance of Henry F. Auger, editor of the Press. Zarse had been driving immediately behind the truck.

At the hospital, x-rays were taken to determine if Mrs. Wirth had suffered any rib fractures.

A witness to the accident was Francis R. Murphy of 5 Third St.

Camporee Postponed

The Boy Scout Camporee scheduled for last weekend at Camp Oak in Bedford had to be postponed on account of rain. It will be held June 5 and 6.

The Sackem Council Camporee, which was scheduled for June 5 and 6, consequently has also had to be postponed and will be held in the fall.

Boy's Nose Broken By Batted Ball

'Screaming Woman' Explains

"A woman" is screaming over a party line," the phone supervisor reported to police early Saturday night.

She said the screams were coming over a telephone whose receiver was off, and that it would be at one of two addresses—which she gave. Patrolman Peter Greeley traced the source of the trouble, and in a report later said that a woman on Highland Ave., explained she had accidentally knocked the receiver off, and became excited."

Harry Waitt Dies At 83

Funeral services were held at the Saville Funeral Chapel Monday afternoon for Harry Stevens Waitt, 83, who died Thursday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jesse P. Bardwell of 23 Gloucester St., with whom he lived.

Rev. Charles E. Pedersen was the officiating minister, and burial was in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

Mr. Waitt had been employed 35 years as a special clerk at the U. S. post office in Providence, retiring 16 years ago. In addition to his daughter here he leaves a second daughter, Miss M. Ruta Waitt of Chicago, who was here for the funeral.

Mrs. Garter Dies At 87

Mrs. Sadie E. Carter, wife of Frederick P. Carter of 24 Thorndike St., died Saturday at the age of 87.

Services were held Tuesday at the Saville Funeral Chapel, with Rev. David Frazier, retired, of Somerville, officiating. Burial was in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

Mrs. Carter leaves besides her husband two sons, Norman J. and Maurice G. Carter.

Trips, Falls

When leaving the Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank Friday night Miss Elizabeth McCaffrey, 63, of 16 Alpine St., missed a step and fell to the sidewalk, injuring her left knee and receiving a cut over the eye.

She went home by taxi and was attended by her family physician.

All 300 of the parking meters recently contracted for by the town have arrived, and installation of the standards or poles on which the meters are to be placed began Tuesday morning.

It is now expected that all of the meters, which are to be used in business areas, will be ready to be placed in operation in about 30 days.

The meters will be installed along Massachusetts Ave. from Newman Way to Central St., on Broadway from Franklin St. to Central St., as well as on a number of side streets. They will also be placed on Mass. Ave. in East Arlington, from Water St. to Marathon St. on the north side and from Orvis Rd. to Melrose St. on the south side.

Under the terms of the town's contract with the meter company, half the receipts will go to the company until the cost of the meters has been met.

Heads Sports At Jr. College

Miss Natalie Hall, a junior at Lasell Junior College, Auburndale, was elected by her classmates last week to serve as leader of the Blue Team for competitive sports at the college under the Lasell Athletic Association. She recently received her letter for the basketball season. Miss Hall is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman W. Hall of 34 Robin Hood Road.

'Pals' Win

In their first start of the year, the Arlington Pals defeated Waltham City Club 3 to 1 at Bicycle Park, Waltham, last week. Joe Keohane went the distance for the Pals, giving up only five hits and allowing two walks.

The Pals will again see action this Friday, when they meet the Bunker Hill Club of Charlestown at the Arlington Heights reservoir field in a game scheduled to start at 6:15.

Tailor Reopens Arlington Shop

Formerly engaged in the tailoring business at 199 Broadway and well known here, Mr. J. Martin has returned to Arlington after two and a half years in New York and reopened for business at 88 Warren St.

Mr. Martin has had 35 years' experience as a ladies' and men's tailor, specializing in repairs, alterations and cleansing.

Draw Jurors

Drawn for jury services in First Criminal Court starting June 7, by the selectmen Monday, were: Charles Tierney, 77 Falmouth Rd.; Charles K. Whitehead, 57 Warren St.; Wilfred B. Graham, 9 Brookdale Ave.

Morrill To Head AHS On July 1

With the election last week of Raymond S. Morrill, assistant principal of Arlington High School, to succeed retiring Principal Herman C. Gammons, the stage now is set for Mr. Morrill to take over direction of the school July 1.

Mr. Gammons, who recently asked the school committee to accept his retirement, will sever his connection with the school at the end of the present term.

The new principal has been Mr. Gammons' assistant since the latter was appointed here in 1931, and previously they occupied the same relative posts at Chelsea High School.

A native of Portland, Me., Mr. Morrill graduated in 1918 from the University of New Hampshire and received his Master in Education degree from Harvard University, where he has since taken several additional courses in the graduate school. He has held teaching posts in Conway, N.H., Malden, Stoneham and Chelsea. Service here during the war and a deputy district warden, and has been active in work for the Boy Scouts and Community Fund. He is secretary of the Lions Club.

He and Mrs. Morrill, who reside at 48 Kenilworth Rd., have four children.

Present Gifts To Hospital

As an outcome of the recent open house at Symmes Arlington Hospital on National Hospital Day, when many visited the institution and became acquainted with its needs, two bassinets have been received as a gift from Mrs. George Hansen of Belmont.

A wheelchair also has been given to the hospital by the Woman's Aid Association of the hospital of which Mrs. Roscoe O. Elliott is president.

Members of the Arlington Garden Club have landscaped the grounds of the nurses' home, in accordance with a practice of years' standing.

Nurse Aides' Work Lauded

"The work of Arlington women as Red Cross Nurse's Aides has contributed measurably to the health and welfare of Arlington residents and scores of other Greater Boston citizens", Harvey H. Bundy, chairman of the Boston Metropolitan Chapter of the Red Cross, declared this week.

"I take this opportunity of thanking each and every one of our 537 Greater Boston Red Cross Nurse's Aides for her unceasing efforts to alleviate suffering in the hospitals in which she works", Bundy said.

"As the summer months approach, their value in the hospitals increases because the needs of the patients grow greater. For this reason, I urge any woman, who has free time during the day to call the Boston Red Cross office, Kenmore 6-6226, and register for the day Nurse's Aide course starting soon.

Local residents commended by Bundy include:

Mrs. Eric Carlson, 42 Summit Street; Elizabeth Bradbury, 17 Orvis Road; Therese F. Bradley, 137 Palmer Street; Mrs. Gideon Cohen, 27 Pond View Road; Rosemary Couture, 8 Waldo Road; Ruby May Cowan, 34 Egerton Road; Ruth G. Dennen, 58 Warren Street; Mrs. Clarence Durling, 18 Inverness Road; Mrs. Robert T. Eckfeldt, 8 Corey Lane; Mrs. Robert E. LaPorte, 48 Chester Street; Barbara Morrill, 1290 Massachusetts Avenue; Mrs. Raymond Morrill, 48 Kenilworth Street; Marjorie E. Munroe, 84 Bow Street; Marita R. Murray, 85 Irving Street; Mrs. Walter MacFarlane, 35 Cleveland Street; Mrs. Thomas J. McCoubrey, 37 Wellington Street; Mrs. Eunice E. Nicoll, 196 Park Avenue; Rosemary E. O'Brien, 27 Adams Street; Frances Oppedisano, 75 Decatur Street; Fanny P. Peterson, 72 Overlook Road; Mrs. Margaret E. Ring, 35 Warren Street; Barbara J. Robinson, 10 Fessenden Road; Mrs. Arthur W. Sampson, 21 Cliff Street; Gertrude L. Stephany, 94 Alpine Street; Nellie Thomas, 30 Orvis Road; Mrs. Gordon Williams, 22 Menotomy Road; Mrs. Frederic Ward, 22 Moulton Road.

I WONDER who remarked last week that Alewife Brook "should be replaced by a big pipe, and then we wouldn't have any more drownings"?

Store Executive Dies 1 Hour After Return From Visit To Maine

An hour after he drove back from a visit to friends in Portland, Me. Sunday night, Stanley A. Hapgood, 55, supervisor of the First National Stores in the Greater Boston area, was fatally stricken with a heart attack at his home, 18 Daniels St.

Mr. Hapgood had retired for the night, about 9:30 and he suffered the attack about an hour later. Medical assistance was summoned but his heart had stopped functioning.

A native of Hudson and a resident of Arlington many years, Mr. Hapgood entered the employ of the First National Stores more than a quarter century ago. He became a store manager, and subsequently was placed in charge of a group of 65 to 70 retail outlets in the Greater Boston area.

Services for Mr. Hapgood, who is survived by his wife, Mrs. Alice M. (Raine) Hapgood, were held yesterday at the Hartwell Funeral Chapel, and committal services were to take place today, Thursday, in Portland, Me.

I Wonder?

I WONDER when they'll unpile the piles of loam that were dumped on Spy Pond playground?

I WONDER if some of the workers last Sunday, collecting for the Archbishop Cushing, wastepaper drive, were surprised to find copies of the Jewish Daily Forward in some of the piles left on sidewalks?

I WONDER if the park dept. shouldn't be congratulated for beautifying the delta on Medford St., and if the same thing couldn't be done with the triangle at the railroad tracks in Arlington Center?

I WONDER what color pajamas Police Inspector John Hourihan wears when he goes in his new orchid-tiled bathroom?

I WONDER if the cost of painting the old town hall could be prorated among the tenants?

I WONDER how many realize that Archbishop Cushing will be at St. Agnes School hall in person Saturday night, when the charity fund drive ends?

I WONDER if the old stile gate at the entrance to the old town cemetery on Pleasant couldn't do with a coat of paint?

I WONDER if Phil Heffernan of Maynard St., will ever find a single-family house, or will he have to build one?

I WONDER what Frank Danahy of Alton St., would do if there were no home town ball games to root for?

I WONDER if Patrolman Tom Burns knows how it feels now to be a burglar, after being forced to wear a mask Saturday before drawing the door prize winner at the penny sale at St. Agnes?

I WONDER if Architect John Shea will ever wash off that mustache he grew in defiance when F. D. R. first took office?

I WONDER if Charlie Pierson likes Arlington better than Washington, D. C., and what Truman thought of his views?

I WONDER if there is anyone who knows more of the political history of the town than Atty. Timothy Collins, who—back some 25 years ago—lost a selectman election by ONE vote?

I WONDER if the purchase of Buddy Poppies isn't one of the most practical ways of really observing Memorial Day?

I WONDER if someone will take the hint and put some flowers in that empty vase on Miss Holmes desk at police headquarters?

I WONDER if the bottom arrow on the traffic light at Franklin St., and Broadway couldn't be fixed so it could be visible?

I WONDER how the waitresses at Koford's will feel to learn that while they were wondering last Saturday who "Miss Arlington Press" was, she was right there listening to them?

I WONDER what those two boys were doing hiding in a tree on Bartlett Ave. at 1:30 Monday morning?

I WONDER if Mr. and Mrs. George of Broadway were pleased at the dollar bill some unknown motorist gave their young son after running him down on his tricycle?

I WONDER if it wouldn't be nice if the phone company saw to it that there was more light in booths where dial phones are in use, so that the dials could be seen?

Wins $50

But "Miss Arlington Press" was in plain hearing and in plain sight all of this time. The waitresses, in fact, parted to make room for her at the cashier's desk.

More than two dozen enterprising persons, as near as could be estimated, stationed themselves at various places along the center to question passersby in the hope of finding "Miss Arlington Press," while others walked up and down the street, prowled through stores and sized up likely-looking prospects.

An untold number of young women—some a bit puzzled—were faced with the question: "Are you Miss Arlington Press?"

Groups of youths prowled the streets; some stationed themselves outside the entrance to the Press office at 485 Mass. Ave., hoping there to get a clue—while a few even went so far as to creep up to the door of the office itself, and listen at the keyhole.

But "Miss Arlington Press" purposely did not come near the Press office until after she was discovered. In fact, no one at the Press knew her identity. She had been engaged through a Boston office, and not till she walked in with Mrs. Mann at 11:10 and announced "Here is the winner!" did members of the Press staff have the last idea what she looked like.

Now her identity can be stated, of course. She was Miss Joan T. Bushell, daughter of Attorney and Mrs. Edward J. Bushell of 182 Hawthorne St., Malden. She is 20 years old, and a student of journalism at Boston University.

Miss Bushell got quite a "kick" out of her unusual assignment.

Assert Town Ambulance Should Be Allowed To Make Trips Out Of Town

"Editor,
Arlington Press:-

"It has been brought to the attention of our organization and other civic and patriotic groups that the citizens and taxpayers of the town of Arlington are living in jeopardy of their lives."

"Let me explain. We have a town ambulance which was paid for & is supported by the townspeople. In the event of any serious accident or disaster, the present regulations forbid this vehicle to leave the town."

"In adjacent communities, ambulances are permitted to go to any hospital to save the lives of the persons they carry."

"Who knows who may be next? You, your mother, son, wife or daughter."

"It is the firm belief and wish of this organization that this condition should be remedied as soon as possible, and the people of Arlington given the protection they justly deserve."

"Very truly yours,
Edward J. Rielly
Comdr. Post No. 20, AMVETS" lives with a friend, Mrs. George H. Rees, at 105 Mystic St. She has a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Marion, living in Orlando, Florida, and recently returned from a visit there.

"This $50 will come in handy."

she exclaimed. "It's the easiest money I've ever made."

She added that, this summer, she's taking a job as a hostess at a summer resort.
